

UNMANNED AIRSPACE

Weekly news bulletin – 5 March 2018

UAS traffic management system news

AirMap and skyguide partner to bring UTM services to Switzerland

NATS and Altitude Angel announce strategic partnership

Draft U-Space concept of operations to be published in June – report CORUS researchers

“Explosive growth” in large UAS operations, predicts new report, if regulators think big

Belgocontrol and BCAA launch free airspace authorisation app

New autonomous navigation, emergency landing software from Deadalean and UAventure

UTM and C-UAS market analysis

C-UAS market “to be worth nearly USD8.5 billion by 2026” – new market forecast

Counter-UAS systems and policies

AirShare “launches drone inception missile system”

“5kW anti-drone laser in service with US troops in Europe” – US Army Times

University of Missouri-Kansas City receives USD14.9 million in counter-UAS defence funding

US Navy awards Lockheed Martin USD150 million contract for anti-drone systems

New DEDrone RF-300 sensor “tracks drones, pilots, forensic evidence”

Indian defence ministry “will acquire more than 70 C-UAS systems”

Hensoldt developing lightweight, airborne, drone detecting radar

If you wish to add email recipients to this list or unsubscribe please send message to newsletter@unmannedairspace.info
For all editorial matters please contact the editor, Philip Butterworth-Hayes on philip@unmannedairspace.info.
For advertising and sponsorship please contact Kay Rolland at Kay.rolland@gmail.com