

UNMANNED AIRSPACE

Weekly news bulletin – 5 November 2017

UAS traffic management system news

AirMap becomes second LAANC certified supplier

US transport secretary Chao details drone integration programme

NASA re-launches UAS-NAS integration industry day call

Portugal plans drone testing zones

First autonomous drone delivery service planned for Dubai

India “plans new rules to open airspace to drone operations”

HAZON and PrecisionHawk link to provide safer flight operations

New SESAR research tracks cooperative and non-cooperative drones

EUROCAE seeks e-identification and geo-fencing experts to help develop UTM standards

SunPower “becomes first FAA approved LAANC operator”

Counter-UAS systems and policies

Dedrone announces new version of airspace surveillance system

Russia forms first battlefield tactical counter-UAV unit Kursk

China’s Digitech “launches family of three C-UAS systems”

US Department of Defense wants to detect UAVs with Patriot replacement radar

If you wish to add email recipients to this list or unsubscribe please send message to newsletter@unmannedairspace.info

For all editorial matters please contact the editor, Philip Butterworth-Hayes on philip@unmannedairspace.info.

For advertising and sponsorship please contact Kay Rolland at Kay.rolland@gmail.com