

UNMANNED AIRSPACE

Weekly news bulletin – 5 February 2018

UAS traffic management system news

German Aerospace Centre develops new urban airspace drone operational concept

Sweden implements new drone operational rules

Vahana electric air-taxi completes first successful test flight

SESAR researchers to simulate large-UAS airport operations in 2019

Swift Aero gets permit to fly drones near Vegas airport and in controlled airspace

“Only 20 commercial drone operator certificates issued in South Africa” – CUAASA AGM report

AirMap provides LAANC digital airspace authorization for third-party flight planners

UTM company Altitude Angel attracts USD4.5 million funding boost

European airports call for drone safety rulebook

Counter-UAS systems and policies

South Korea adopts layered counter-drone approach to Olympic security

Indian government organises counter-drone competition

H.P. Marketing & Consulting Wüst provide drone jammers to Davos summit

Counter-UAS systems tenders

Canada defence agency seeks laser-powered drone countermeasure system

If you wish to add email recipients to this list or unsubscribe please send message to newsletter@unmannedairspace.info

For all editorial matters please contact the editor, Philip Butterworth-Hayes on philip@unmannedairspace.info.

For advertising and sponsorship please contact Kay Rolland at Kay.rolland@gmail.com