

UNMANNED AIRSPACE

Weekly news bulletin – 19 March 2018

UAS traffic management system news

New FAA forecasts suggests 400% increase in drone numbers to 2022

Swedish, US researchers model urban airspace capacity limits for drone operators

FAA UAS Symposium round-up – a step closer to understanding UTM priorities in the USA

US government “poised to agree drone package deliveries”

Airways New Zealand integrating air taxis into its UTM programme

GUTMA launches flight data protocol

New UTM company plans for Blockchain/AI-based UTM system by December 2018

Counter-UAS systems and policies

Russia “to introduce measures to protect airports from drone incursions”

Boeing’s HorizonX invests in counter-UAS company Fortem Technologies

Airspace Systems C-UAS drone company “attracts USD20 million in funding”

If you wish to add email recipients to this list or unsubscribe please send message to newsletter@unmannedairspace.info
For all editorial matters please contact the editor, Philip Butterworth-Hayes on philip@unmannedairspace.info.
For advertising and sponsorship please contact Kay Rolland at Kay.rolland@gmail.com