

UNMANNED AIRSPACE

Weekly news bulletin – 2 April 2018

UAS traffic management system news

China's SF Express "given licence to start drone-based transport network"

Thales to work with NASA on UTM research

Air New Zealand wants tougher drone violation penalties after near miss

NASA Ames reposts request for UTM research partners

Nevada Institute for Autonomous Systems tests FAA UTM platform for BVLOS operations

Maynooth University receives EUR6 million to fund UTM research

Counter-UAS systems and policies

SRC awarded USD57 million C-UAS contract from US Air Force

New Congress Act aims to allow US federal agencies to shoot down drones

UAS traffic management tenders

European Maritime Safety Agency requires BVLOS SATCOM link for surveillance UAS

If you wish to add email recipients to this list or unsubscribe please send message to newsletter@unmannedairspace.info

For all editorial matters please contact the editor, Philip Butterworth-Hayes on philip@unmannedairspace.info.

For advertising and sponsorship please contact Kay Rolland at Kay.rolland@gmail.com